

House Resolution No. 1876

Whereas, upon occasion the members of the Missouri House of Representatives pause to recognize those individuals who have performed an invaluable service to their community; and

Whereas, Julie Stevens will receive the prestigious St. Charles Crime Stoppers 2004 Citizen of the Year award during the Twelfth Annual Community Recognition Dinner to be held April 14, 2005, at The Stegtons Banquet Center in St. Charles; and

Whereas, Crime Stoppers is a community program which provides citizens with an anonymous way to report crimes and suspicious activities; and

Whereas, on December 20, 2003, Julie Stevens was working at the Commerce Bank on First Capitol Drive when a suspect entered the bank with the intention of robbing it; and

Whereas, when another employee was unable to open her cash drawer for the suspect, he quickly fled the scene; and

Whereas, Julie Stevens noticed that the bank's patrolman was in the drive-thru, informed him of the attempted robbery, and pointed out the suspect, who was chased by the patrolman and eventually apprehended; and

Whereas, it is entirely fitting and proper that this legislative body should pay tribute to Julie Stevens, a remarkable individual whose efforts and willingness to cooperate were of tremendous help to local law enforcement:

Now, therefore, be it resolved that we, the members of the Missouri House of Representatives, Ninety-third General Assembly, unanimously join in extending our most hearty and robust congratulations to Julie Stevens at this proud moment of well-deserved distinction; and

Be it further resolved that the Chief Clerk of the Missouri House of Representatives be instructed to prepare a properly inscribed copy of this resolution for Julie Stevens, as a mark of our esteem for her.
